If it is determined that any of such information is false, this agreement shall be null and void and Tenant's residency at will and terminable by Landlord at Landlord's sole discretion.

1. DESCRIPTION AND TERM

Landlord hereby leases to tenant and tenant hereby leases from Landlord the premises known as Aspen Meadow II, 236 South 300 East, Apt _____ Cedar City, UT 84720 subject to the terms and provisions hereof for the term beginning on _____, 20____ and ending on _____, 20____.

Tenant acknowledges that Tenant has inspected the premises, and the premises are acceptable in "as is" condition and that they are in good, clean and acceptable repair except as specifically may be otherwise agreed to by both parties in writing.

2. RENT PAYMENTS

(a). RENT DUE. Landlord leases the Apartment to Tenant and Tenant leases from Landlord for the full term of the lease. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord _____/month as rent from the commencement date of this lease as stated above. In the event that the Term begins on a day other than the first day of the month or ends on a day that is other than the last day of the month, Rent for the partial month shall be prorated. Rent shall be due and payable in advance without demand, on the first day of each month during the Term of this lease at a place designated by Landlord.

(b). LATE FEES. Resident agrees to pay a $30 late charge for any payment of monthly Rent that is not received before 5:00 pm on the fifth day of each month plus $8 per day thereafter for each day Rent is not paid in addition to monthly Rent due.

(c). RETURNED CHECK FEES. If a check is received by Landlord is returned by Tenant's bank for any reason, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord a minimum returned check fee of $35.00 dollars and all additional fees Landlord incurs as a result of the returned check, in addition to the full Monthly Rent and any late fee due. Any and all amounts due to Landlord from Tenant under lease (including but not limited to late fees and returned check fees) are considered additional Rent and Tenant's failure to pay any such amounts will have the same effect under this lease as Tenant's failure to pay Monthly Rent. All returned checks must be replaced immediately with certified funds. In the event that Landlord receives a second returned check from Tenant at any time, all payment of future Rents must be in certified funds. Tenant understands that Tenant's promise to pay Monthly Rent is independent of any of Landlord's promises under this Lease and that under no circumstances may Resident withhold the payment of Monthly rent. Any payment of less than the full amount of Monthly Rent for a given month, regardless of endorsements to the contrary on a check or money order given by Tenant, may be accepted by Landlord and will only be deemed a partial payment "on account" of the full amount due.

(d). CHECK REFUSAL. Landlord reserves the right to refuse a personal check at any time and for any reason.

(e). CHECK ACCEPTANCE. Rent shall not be considered paid until funds are collected into Landlord's bank. Tenant shall have the burden of proof to establish that rent was tendered and accepted in the event of dispute.

(f). PAYING OF SUMS DUE. Payment of all sums is an independent covenant. At Landlord's option and without notice, Landlord may apply money received first to Tenant's non-rent obligations, then to Rent, regardless of notations on checks or money orders and regardless of when the obligations arise. All sums other than rent (which is due on the first) are due upon Landlord's demand. After that date, Landlord does not have to accept Rent or any other payments.

3. DEFAULTS, REMEDIES AND COLLECTION FEES

(a). DEFAULTS, AND REMEDIES. Tenant will be deemed in default under this Lease if Tenant fails to pay Monthly Rent or any other charges promptly when due, or if Resident fails to comply with any of the other terms, conditions, or covenants of this Lease or Community Policies or abandons or leaves the Apartment vacant before the expiration of the Term of the Lease. In the event of any default under this Lease by the Landlord, Tenant's remedies will be limited to an action at law for damages. Upon default by Tenant, Landlord may at Landlord's sole election, terminate and retake possession of the Apartment under applicable Utah law and, use such force as may be necessary to remove and put out Tenant and anyone occupying the Apartment, and remove any personal property found in the Apartment and store or dispose of it at the Tenant's expense without being liable on account thereof for prosecution or damages. Tenant will remain liable for the balance of the Rent stated in the lease. No such repossession by Landlord will be deemed an election to terminate this Lease unless written notice of such notice is given to Tenant. Accepting money at any time does not waive Landlord's right to damages, past or future Rent or other sums.

(b). COLLECTION FEES. In the event of default or breach of this Lease, should this matter be turned over to an attorney or collection agency, Tenant will be liable for attorney and/or collection fees and/or reasonable costs of collecting or of Landlord regaining possession. Should either party bring suit to enforce, or for breach of this Lease, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover from the other party its reasonable attorney fees and court costs. Tenant further agrees that in addition to Rent, to pay collection costs and legal fees as stated in the Demand for Compliance or Possession if payment is made after the expiration of such Demand as a condition for Landlord's agreement to accept same.

4. FUTURE RENTS.

(a). COLLECTION OF FUTURE RENTS. In the event it becomes necessary for Landlord to serve an eviction notice, either because of nonpayment of Rent, or failure of Tenant to abide by this Lease or the published Community Policies, it is understood by all parties to this Lease that Tenant will be responsible for the balance of the Lease Term less any moneys collected through the re-renting of the Apartment to others. Landlord may determine how payment by Tenants is applied to obligations of the Lease, i.e. cost and expense of re-letting rent, utilities, painting, late charges, attorney fees and cost of collections. Tenant acknowledges that for the basis of prorating amounts due to Aspen Meadow Apartments, or other Tenants, all calculations will use the actual number of days in the month in which the charge is assessed or credited. No such re-entry or re-taking possession of said Apartment by the Landlord shall be construed as an election on Landlord's part to terminate this Lease unless written notice of release of any monetary obligations shall be given to Tenant or unless the termination and release of further monetary obligations shall be decreed by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

5. USE, CONDUCT, PETS, MAINTENANCE AND LOCKS, REIMBURSEMENT, VEHICLES, SAFETY, ETCETERA.

Landlord will furnish smoke detectors where required by statute, and will test them and provide working batteries when Tenant first takes possession. After that, Tenant shall purchase and replace batteries that may fail in the smoke detectors during Tenant's Lease Term as needed, otherwise Landlord may replace dead or missing batteries at Tenant's expense without prior notice to the Tenant. Tenant must immediately report smoke detector malfunctions to Landlord. Neither Tenant nor others may disconnect smoke detectors. 8. CRIME OR EMERGENCY.

Tenant shall dial 911 or immediately or call local fire, police or EMS authorities in case of fire, smoke or suspected criminal activity involving imminent harm. Tenant shall then contact the Landlord representative. Tenant shall not treat any of Landlord's security measures as an express or implied warranty of security or as a guarantee against crime or of reduced risk of crime. Landlord is not obliged to furnish security personnel, security lighting, security gates or fences or other forms of security unless required by statute. Landlord is not responsible for obtaining criminal-history checks on any Tenant, occupant or guest in the Apartment Community. If the Apartment is damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord will repair it with reasonable dispatch after notice of such damage. If the Apartment is rendered untenable by fire or other casualty, or if the Building (though the Apartment may not be affected) is so damaged that Landlord decides within a reasonable period of time not to rebuild, the Term of the Lease shall cease and Monthly Rent will be paid up to the date of such damage, or the date of last possession by Tenant, whichever occurs last, and both parties will be relieved of further obligations hereunder. If the whole or any part of the Apartment is taken by a competent authority under eminent domain for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, then the Term will terminate on the date when possession of the part so taken is required for such use or purpose. All damages awarded for such taking will belong to and shall be property of Landlord.

(d). Tenant shall leave forwarding address with Landlord's property manager. Within 60 days after Tenant's vacancy (which will be the date on which Tenant gives Landlord the Apartment keys or the date on which Tenant surrenders and Landlord accepts the Apartment, whichever occurs last), Landlord will refund Deposit to Tenant, less any charges against the Deposit as described previously. If less than the full Deposit is so refunded, Landlord will send Tenant a full written statement listing the charges or reasons for retention of all or part of the Deposit
